Course Title: Inglés X
Term: 27-1
Instructor: Marron

General Instructions: Print your name in the upper right-hand corner of this paper. Read each item carefully. Be sure that you understand exactly what is being asked of you. Begin your answers on the backside of this paper if possible and add extra sheets of paper as needed. Be sure to write your name on any and all extra sheets of paper. Staple all exam papers together when you are finished.

Do not look at other student's exams. If you have a question or a request during the exam, raise your hand and the instructor will call on you.. When you are finished, bring your completed exam to the instructor.

This is a closed book exam. Attempt to answer all questions, even if you are uncertain. Whenever possible, provide answers in bullet list format with complete content. Tasks will be evaluated by sub-tasks. Three (3) points are available for each sub-task: Accuracy (1 pt), Completeness (1 pt), and Sufficiency (1 pt). Points will be awarded in 0.1 increments. Answer in English unless requested to do so otherwise.

Task 1 (6 pts)

The Han Empire has played a crucial role in the development of Chinese culture and identity¹². Answer the following questions related to your studies of the Han Empire.

1. List at least three (3) achievements of the Han Empire.
2. Translate the writing of Chinese characters (汉字) into English.
3. Why do you think most Chinese consider themselves to be Han?
4. Very briefly summarize the topic of your three (3) slide presentation on the Han Empire.

Task 2 (6 pts)

Ever since the cognitive revolution about 70,000 year BP, humans have been capable of an ever-expanding sphere of cooperation driven by religion, empire, and money.³ And yet today, when we face immense threats to civilization itself, there seems to be little international cooperation.

1. Do you think humans are capable of real, international cooperation? Or are we naturally violent and solely driven by money and power?
2. What would be needed to create a truly peaceful, egalitarian, and creative society, as for example, the societies of 'Old Europe' which were brought to light by the famous archaeologist and anthropologist, Marija Gimbutas?

Task 3 (6 pts)

According to Reynolds, G. (2019)⁴ presentations using audio-visual aids can be surprisingly beautiful, engaging, and powerful.

1. List three (3) suggested guidelines for dynamic storytelling in presentations.
2. What is the role of creativity in the preparation of a presentation?

Task 4 (6 pts)

The development of artificial intelligence (AI) is occurring at an astonishing rate. A recent international conference at Middlebury College entitled, “AI and the Future of Translation and Interpretation,” has clearly stated that “all interpreters and translators should be leveraging AI and machines as partners and aides⁵.” Currently, using AI as a professional requires a working knowledge of command line usage and coding (i.e., computer programming). Define the following terms in English:

1. API
2. API key
3. Python
4. Command line interface
5. IDE (like Spyder)
6. Google Gemini series
7. OpenAI gpt series
8. Prompt engineering

Task 5 (6 pts)

Amy Tan’s novel, The Joy Luck Club paints a picture of Chinese-American culture through the eyes of mothers who have emigrated from China and their American-born daughters. Select your favorite chapter from Chapters 1 – 4 of the novel and perform and/or answer the following:

1. Briefly explain why you selected the chapter.
2. What, in your opinion, is the main “take-away” from the chapter?
3. Write a very brief summary of the chapter in English in seven (7) sentences or less.
